

ENVIRONMENT POLICY

Ganesh Fabrotech Pvt. Ltd., engaged in manufacturing of Boiler Parts & Various Alloys Fabrication with machining is committed to comply with all applicable Environment laws, in order to ensure compliance & continually improve our ENVIRONMENT Management and its performance;

We are committed to:

- Proactively taking measures to prevent Pollution, Ill-health Environment.
- Comply with all applicable legal & other requirements to which we subscribe that relate to organizational environmental aspects & hazards.
- Take into account the environmental performance of individuals at different levels while considering their career advancement.
- Fix the responsibility of the contractor, sub-contractors, transporters and other agencies entering the premises.
- Apply relevant techniques and methods, such as Environment audits and risk assessment for periodical assessment of the status on Environment performance and taking all the remedial measures.
- Integrate Environment in all decisions including those dealing with purchase of plant, equipment, machinery and material as well as selection and placement of personnel.
- Make arrangement for informing, educating and training and retraining our own employees at different levels and the public/interested parties, wherever required.

Date: 01/11/2022
Pune

Madhav Kulkarni
Managing Director (Ganesh Fabrotech Pvt Ltd.)